PERSONAL PROFILE

I am Chuma Tsheyini a young woman who is willing to learn new things and know ideas of other people.

I am a hard worker and I don't give up on what I want to achieve.

I persevere and pray.

I like challenges. I would love to be a lawyer one day, maybe in the next 10 to 15 years. I'm planning on going back to school next year and study.

Honestly I'm a lazy person, but when I tell myself to do something, I do it with my all.

I believe that if someone wants to do something or does not want to do something, no one can change that persons mind because she has already made her mind.
